

VICTIM RIGHTS ACT REFERENCE GUIDE

VRA CRIMES:

Any crime with underlying factual basis of Domestic Violence	Murder, Manslaughter, Criminally Negligent Homicide	Child Abuse	Crimes Against at Risk Juveniles and Adults
Assault in the first, second, or third degree	Bias Motivated Crimes	First Degree Burglary	Human Trafficking
Menacing	Stalking	Retaliation against a victim, witness, judge, juror, or prosecutor	Tampering with a victim or witness
Careless Driving Causing Death	Vehicular Homicide	Vehicular Assault	Leaving the scene of an accident causing death
Robbery and Aggravated Robbery	First and second degree kidnapping	Sexual assault on a child	Sexual assault in the first, second, or third degree
Incest	Unlawful Sexual Contact	Crimes involving child prostitution	Sexual Exploitation of children
Failure to stop at scene of an accident resulting in SBI	Violation of Protection Order involving stalking	Posting private image for harassment or pecuniary gain

* All crimes include any attempt, conspiracy, accessory, or criminal solicitation ****

DEFINITION OF VICTIM: "Victim" means any natural person against whom a crime has been perpetrated or attempted, unless the person is accountable for the crime or a crime arising from the same criminal conduct or plan as crime is defined under the laws of this state or of the United States, or, if such person is deceased or incapacitated, the person's spouse, parent, legal guardian, child, sibling, grandparent, grandchild, significant other, or other lawful representative. C.R.S. 24-4.1-302.5 (5)